Important Information for Buyers

Registration and Buyer's numbers

The auction will be conducted using Buyer's numbers. All prospective bidders are asked to register and collect a Buyer's number before the sale.

Buyer's premium

Please note that a Buyer's premium of 22% (inclusive of Goods and Services Tax) of the hammer price on each lot is payable by the buyer.

Absentee bidding and Telephone bidding

As a convenience to buyers who are unable to attend the auction in person, Australian Book Auctions will, if so instructed in writing at least 24 hours before the sale, execute bids on behalf of prospective buyers. Absentee bids can only be accepted on the appropriate form fully completed (the form is to be found at the end of this catalogue). Absentee bids cannot be accepted by telephone unless confirmed in writing.

In the case of lots with a lower estimate of at least $1000, Australian Book Auctions will, if so requested at least 24 hours before the sale, make all reasonable efforts to contact prospective buyers by telephone so as to enable them to participate in bidding. Requests for this service must be confirmed in writing. In no circumstance will Australian Book Auctions be held responsible for any error or failure to execute bids.

Absentee bids should conform to the increments published in this catalogue (see page 3). An absentee bid that does not conform to the published increments may be lowered to the next bidding interval.

Collection of purchases

All lots purchased must be collected from the place of auction within seven days of the sale date. Collection may be available for a brief period at the conclusion of the sessions.

Uncollected lots may be placed in storage at the Buyer's risk and the Buyer's expense. Australian Book Auctions will be pleased to assist any Buyer who wishes to make special arrangements for collection. Please notify us before the sale if you require special assistance.

Methods of payment

Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer, no purchases may be collected until the end of the sale. Payment should be made in Australian dollars in cash, or bank cheque, or by telegraphic transfer to Australian Book Auction's account. Personal cheques may be accepted at the discretion of Australian Book Auctions and, unless prior arrangements have been made, must be cleared before delivery of any lots. Credit card payments by Mastercard or Visa can also be accepted by prior arrangement. Please note that if payment is made by credit card, an additional charge of 1.1% will be added to your invoice to cover bank fees and charges.

Condition of lots

All lots are sold "as is", in accordance with clauses 6a-f of the Conditions of Business, and Australian Book Auctions makes no representation as to the condition of any lot. Buyers should satisfy themselves as to the condition of any lot before the sale.

Every attempt is made to describe all lots accurately in the catalogue but condition of lots is not generally noted.

Where a note describing the condition of any lot is included in the catalogue this is intended as general guidance only for intending buyers who should satisfy themselves as to the condition of any lot or as to any other matter affecting the value of any lot before the sale, either by personal inspection or by obtaining any independent expert advice reasonable in view of the buyers' expertise and the value of the lot. Buyers will be deemed to have knowledge of all matters which they could reasonably be expected to find out given the exercise by them of reasonable due diligence. See especially clauses 6a-f and 7a-f of the Conditions of Business.

Sale Room Notices and Announcements from the Rostrum

All conditions, notices, descriptions, statements and other matters concerning a lot are subject to any statement modifying or affecting that lot made by the Auctioneer from the rostrum prior to any bid being accepted on that lot. In general and where possible, any such matter will also be noted in a Sale Room Notice posted prior to the sale.

Pre-sale estimates

The pre-sale estimates are intended as a guide for prospective buyers only. A bid between the listed figures should, in our opinion, offer a fair chance of success. However, all lots, depending on the level of competition, can realise prices either above or below the listed estimates.

Please note that where any lot is subject to a seller's reserve in no case will the seller's reserve exceed the lower estimate.

Conditions of Business

The auction will be conducted in accordance with our Conditions of Business printed in this catalogue. Prospective bidders should read these Conditions carefully before bidding. The above notes are for general guidance and should not be taken as a summary of the Conditions of Business nor an alternative to them.

EDEN, William (traditional misattribution). THE HISTORY OF NEW HOLLAND, from its First Discovery in 1616, to the Present Time. With a Particular Account of its Produce and Inhabitants; and a Description of Botany Bay... Second Edition. Octavo, with two folding maps handcoloured in outline (the first with a short sealed tear), final leaf slightly tanned, later half calf, top edge gilt. London, Printed for John Stockdale, 1787. With the contemporary signature of Rich[ar]d Watts Junr, 1790. An important First Fleet book, this was one of the earliest and most widely read descriptions of Australia, published to coincide with the departure from England of the First Fleet of which many details are provided. The two fine handcoloured maps are highly regarded and show the entire continent as then known, with an inset map of Botany Bay, and a large folding world map with the “passage from England to Botany Bay in New Holland 1787” showing the route of the First Fleet. This second edition, published within a few months of the first, is generally preferred since the extended preface gives precise details of the First Fleet expedition to Botany Bay which had only been under discussion when first issued a few months earlier. Beddie, 28; Davidson, pp. 79–81; Ferguson, 25; Holmes 66 (first edition).

WRAXALL, Nathaniel William. A SHORT REVIEW OF THE POLITICAL STATE OF GREAT-BRITAIN at the Commencement of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-Seven... The Sixth Edition, With Additions. Octavo, later half roan (rubbed) and marbled boards. London, J. Debrett, 1787. Extremely scarce: this edition of Wraxall’s pamphlet includes a “very interesting criticism of the expedition to Botany Bay... The destination of the convicts is too remote; they are departing at the wrong time of the year and will be exposed to the rigours of winter. No possible benefit can accrue to Great Britain from the execution of the project” (Ferguson). Ferguson, 27.

GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, Great Britain and Ireland, Parliament. AN ACT FOR THE EFFECTUAL TRANSPORTATION OF FELONS and other Offenders; and to authorize the Removal of Prisoners in certain Cases; and for other Purposes therein mentioned. Foolscap folio, pale browning, a fine copy in modern marbled wrappers. London, Charles Eyre and William Strahan, 1784. Rare: the legal basis for the settlement of Australia. [with] AN ACT to authorise, for a limited Time, the Punishment by Hard Labour of Offenders who, for certain Crimes, are or shall become liable to be transported to any of His Majesty’s Colonies and Plantations. Foolscap folio, neat paper repair to short tears at right margin, in modern marbled wrappers. London, Charles Eyre and William Strahan, 1776. Britain’s earlier answer to increasing convict numbers after transportation to the American colonies ceased: the establishment of London hulks housing prisoners employed on river works and naval dockyards.

GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, Parliament. AN ACT TO ENABLE HIS MAJESTY TO ESTABLISH A COURT OF CRIMINAL JUDICATURE on the Eastern Coast of New South Wales, and Parts adjacent. Foolscap folio, a fine copy in modern marbled wrappers with paper label. London, Charles Eyre and Andrew Strahan, 1787. Rare: an Act specifically designed to address the peculiar circumstances of the convict colony to be established in New South Wales. Ferguson, 22. + AN ACT to Enable his Majesty to establish a Court of Criminal Judicature in Norfolk Island. Foolscap folio, single leaf, modern marbled wrappers with paper label. London, 7 May, 1794. + A BILL to authorize the Governor of New South Wales ... to make provision for the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes committed by His Majesty's Subjects in Islands situate in the Southern or Pacific Ocean, and not being within His Majesty's Domain. London, House of Commons, 7 June 1832.

PHILLIP Governor Arthur. THE VOYAGE OF GOVERNOR PHILLIP TO BOTANY BAY, with an Account of the Establishment of the Colonies of Port Jackson & Norfolk Island... to which are added the Journals of Lieuts. Shortland, Watts, Ball & Capt. Marshall... embellished with fifty-five copper plates.

Quarto, with 54 engraved plates and charts, the 31 natural history plates as issued on laid paper and in fine original handcolouring, title and frontispiece slightly toned, pale foxing of several engraved (not coloured) plates, professional strengthening on some chart folds, a fine copy in handsome period style half calf and marbled boards, spine elaborately decorated and gilt. London, John Stockdale, 1789.

THE RARE DE LUXE HANDCOLOURED ISSUE OF THE FOUNDATION BOOK

First edition of the 'official' account of the First Fleet: Stockdale's edition of Governor Phillip's account of the voyage of the First Fleet comprises a full record of events on land and on sea from March 1787, just before the First Fleet sailed, up to September 1788. Based on Governor Phillip's dispatches, other official correspondence, and the journals of other officers, the text records the early expeditions into the interior around Botany Bay and Port Jackson, as well as the earliest exploratory coastal voyages. Among the charts and plans is the earliest plan of the settlement at Sydney Cove, showing what buildings and other progress had been made there by July 1788 Drawn in July by Lieutenant William Dawes and Captain John Hunter, it was published by Stockdale on 7 July, 1789, over two weeks before the earliest separately-issued plan of the settlement. Notably the text describes and the plates illustrate newly-discovered animal life, here presented in fine, bright handcolouring, making this the first Australian natural history book.

Phillip's Voyage has always been considered a cornerstone of any collection of Australiana. Davidson considered that as "the authentic record of first settlement the work's importance cannot be over-emphasised", while Wantrup confirmed that "as a detailed and officially sanctioned account of the new colony, the first edition of Stockdale's Phillip is a key work and essential to any serious collection of Australian books".

Stockdale published two issues of the book: a regular issue with uncoloured engraved plates printed on wove paper and this rarely encountered de luxe issue with the engraved plates handcoloured and printed on laid paper. Stockdale's Phillip is known to have various other points and variants. The present lot has the title-page in the first state, with the artist, Henry Webber's, name on the vignette. Davidson, pp. 70-2; Ferguson, 47; Hill 2, 1347; Wantrup, 5.

SPOTTED OPOSSUM.

Published July 28th 1789, by J. Stockdale.

The Macquarie Era (lots 8-20)

GREAT BRITAIN & IRELAND, Parliament. REPORT FROM THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORTATION. [with] PAPERS RELATING TO HIS MAJESTY'S SETTLEMENTS at New South Wales; 1811 – 1814 [drop title]. Two items, foolscap folio, pp. 118, and pp. 14, fine copies, the Report in modern navy half calf over buckram boards, in matching bookform box, the Papers in marbled wrappers, in quarter tan morocco bookform box. [London], Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 10 July 1812 and [London], 11 June 1816.

Two notably rare and important papers, the only published documents illustrating Macquarie's earliest years.

In 1811, following the deposition of Governor Bligh, there was enough uncertainty in Britain about the value of the transportation of convicts to New South Wales for a Parliamentary Select Committee to be formed to inquire into the system which had operated since 1787 and to recommend future policy. The Report includes a complete transcript of the evidence given by many notable witnesses, including former Governor John Hunter (twelve pages), former Governor William Bligh (19 pages), his deposer George Johnston (three pages), Scottish Martyr Maurice Margarot, Matthew Flinders, First Fleet chaplain Richard Johnson, and many other colonial officials. Extracts from several of Macquarie's early dispatches are included. It endorsed the existing system of transportation and "the liberal views of the present Governor", and became effectively the foundation for Macquarie's programme of civil and administrative improvement. Ferguson, 543; Wantrup, 38.

The Papers contain a long despatch from Macquarie to Lord Bathurst, dated 28th June 1813, in which he explains his progress in reforming the colony. "It is a noteworthy document and very rare" (Wantrup). Ferguson, 646. Wantrup, 39.

BLAXCELL, Garnham and BENT, Ellis. DISHONoured PROMISSORY NOTE, manuscript signed by Garnham Blaxcell for 250 pounds to be paid in good Government Bills to Captain Joseph James, Sydney. Together with a printed and manuscript notice of protest form, dated 16 August 1813, signed by Ellis Bent, Judge Advocate, and James Foster, Clerk for Ellis Bent, folio printed form, printed by George Howe, achieved in manuscript by James Foster, the second side being the copy of the original promissory note signed by the debtor, Garnham Blaxcell Manuscript on watermarked paper, 75 x 200 mm, and folio printed form, both pieces with pale staining at right margin. Sydney, March 1812 and [Howe printer] August 1813. A pair of early and important Australian commercial documents. Garnham Blaxcell was one of Sydney's wealthiest merchants, and together with Alexander Riley and D'Arcy Wentworth had been granted a monopoly in the importation and sale of rum as part of a contract to build the Sydney Hospital, known thereafter as the "Rum Hospital". The importation and distribution of rum was a sensitive point following the coup against Governor Bligh, and consequently Bligh's successor, Governor Lachlan Macquarie, judiciously decided to end the monopoly and allowed rum to be imported and sold in the colony by others. Blaxcell was the worst effected by this reversal and was eventually ruined. By 1812 he was unable to pay import duties to the Government and defaulted on his numerous private debts. On 16 August 1813 an official protest by Joseph James was made to Judge Advocate Ellis Bent, while the Crown was also preparing to recover Blaxcell's debts through the Supreme Court. Holding on for four more years, Blaxcell left the colony on April 1817 his debts unpaid. He died on the way back to England. This is a significant relic in the early history of New South Wales, encapsulating the corruption of the Rum Corps years and one of the main actors.

GREAT BRITAIN & IRELAND, Parliament. REPORT FROM THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF GAOLS, &C. Foolscap folio, with a folding coloured lithographed "Outline Map of the Settlements in New South Wales" and four folding lithographed plans, several tiny repairs to title verso and first four leaves, minor scattered pale foxing, uncut, modern quarter crushed morocco, in matching bookform box. [London], House of Commons, Ordered to be printed 12 July, 1819. Rare: of substantial Australian interest. This important report, a key prelude to Bigge's destruction of Macquarie, provides one of the most detailed accounts of the colony prior to Bigge's arrival (see Wantrup pp. 112-113, where the background and consequences of this important report are discussed). Among those to give evidence were Alexander Riley, Jeffery Hart Bent, Samuel Bate, and John Macarthur. Ferguson, 747; Wantrup, 43.

GOLD DISCOVERY. REPORT FROM THE SELECT COMMITTEE of the Legislative Council on the Claims for the Discovery of Gold in Victoria. Together with the Proceedings of Committee, Minutes of Evidence, and Appendix... Foolschap folio, pp. 22, with related later newspaper clippings loosely inserted (a couple pinned to final leaf), and two-page inked transcript of 1857 Argus article attached, early roan-backed boards, boxed, with altered spine label. Melbourne, John Ferres, Government Printer, 10 March, 1854. Association copy, with the stamped name and inked address of the witness Louis J. Michel. An important report that, in effect, constitutes an official history of the beginning of the gold rushes. The committee decided in favour of the more scientific and less publicity-seeking claimant, W.B. Clarke, stating that they felt "bound to recognise his claim to be considered the first discoverer of gold in Australia", while they acknowledge that Hargraves "succeeded in discovering gold deposits, and taught parties how to construct and use the apparatus required". Their final recommendation was that 5000 pounds sterling be awarded to Hargraves, and 1000 pounds to W.B. Clarke. The committee found that Michel and his party, who had explored for gold in 1851 in the Upper Yarra and Plenty Ranges and had found alluvial gold in the bed of Anderson Creek, had "established their claim to be held as the first publishers of the discovery of a goldfield in the Colony of Victoria". Michel was awarded 1000 pounds.

Bridgland, Bookbinder, Gresham St., Adelaide, on back pastedown endpaper, rear board with pale marking. Adelaide, Frearson and Brother, 1879.* First edition: very scarce. Hamilton was one of the earliest overlanders to and from Port Phillip and these densely printed reminiscences are a lively record of experience in the earliest years of two colonies. Hamilton was an amateur artist of some ability and the wood-engraved plates, after his drawings, have a distinct naïve charm. Ferguson, 10183 (miscollated).

HARRISON, Robert. COLONIAL SKETCHES: or, Five Years in South Australia, with hints to capitalists and emigrants. Octavo, original cloth. London and Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Hall, Virtue, and Co., William Kaye, 1862. Only edition of a scarce volume published by a former settler in South Australia from 1856 to 1861. Writing of the colony under the administration of the eminently lampoonable Sir Richard McDonnell, Harrison's criticisms of South Australia, its society, manners, and pretensions are often wickedly satirical but not entirely malicious. Petherick claimed that the Angas family (who are ridiculed throughout) purchased and destroyed every copy of the book they could find. A Vivid Fragment of Colonial History. Octavo, with full-page illustrations included in the pagination, original pictorial wrappers, half calf (spine worn). Leeds, Petty & Sons, Ltd, 1890s. Published progressively in Melbourne, Leeds, and London, this pamphlet was a souvenir produced in connection with the display of the alleged convict hulk throughout Britain in the mid-1890s. A sensational 'history' of convict experience, it even extends to an account of the spectacularly unrelated Kelly Gang of bushrangers. Ferguson, 10279. + WANTRUP, J. THE TRANSPORTATION Exile and Escape of Thomas Muir. *Octavo, frontispiece, wrappers. MACARTHUR, Edward. COLONIAL POLICY OF 1840 AND 1841, as illustrated by the Governor's despatches, and proceedings of the Legislative Council of New South Wales. Octavo, with a handcoloured map, a fine copy in modern half calf, top edge gilt. London, John Murray, 1841. Rare: advocating emigration and discussing at length the British government's land policy in New South Wales. A distinguished soldier, Sir Edward Macarthur was the eldest son of John Macarthur, the great perturbator. As a very young man he was involved in his father's deposition of Governor Bligh but, unlike his father, he went on to serve his country with distinction. Until 1851 he was stationed in London, actively representing Australian interests there. This is one – and the more important – of two pamphlets he published in the 1840s promoting the cause of emigration to the Australian colonies. NORTHERN TERRITORY. FINNISS, B.T. PETITION OF B.T. FINNISS. Ordered by the House of Assembly to be printed, 28th September, 1866. Foolscap folio, pp. 6, cloth-backed card covers. In March 1864 Finnis was appointed government Resident in the Northern Territory, later becoming special and stipendiary magistrate as well. The hastily organised and poorly planned survey party under his command was instructed to examine the Adelaide River and nearby coast and to select a capital site. Against the advice of his subordinates, Finnis chose Adam Bay and began marking out sections on its mosquito-infested mud flats. Bitter dissensions followed with his assistants who complained to Adelaide. Finnis was recalled to face a Royal Commission which condemned him for poor judgement and for spending some £40,000 of public funds on a hopeless venture. (A.D.B. online). This Petition was Finnis's detailed response to those findings. House of Assembly Paper 81 of 1866. Mills, AB63.

WAKEFIELD, Edward Gibbon. A VIEW OF THE ART OF COLONIZATION with present reference to the British Empire; in Letters between a Statesman and a Colonist. Edited by (one of the writers) Edward Gibbon Wakefield. Octavo, uncut, modern buckram-backed boards. London, Parker, 1849. Proof copy of the first edition: inscribed "Proof Sheets – Confidential" on the title-page, the first text leaf, and the final blank. Wakefield's final and most substantial statement on 'systematic' colonisation in which, most notably, he proposes a scheme for the colonisation of New Zealand along the theoretical lines first established and developed in his earlier promotional writings on the less than successful South Australian experiment. Expanded from the second volume of his England and America of 1833, Wakefield's views on colonisation theory not only influenced British liberal political philosopher John Stuart Mill but even provoked a sustained critical response from Karl Marx in a complete chapter of Das Kapital. The fictitious "statesman", whose letters form a counterpoint to Wakefield's own letters as a fictitious "colonist", was almost certainly intended to be Earl Grey, who was in charge of the Colonial Office from 1846. WILSON, Edward. RAMBLES AT THE ANTIPODES: a Series of Sketches of Moreton Bay, New Zealand, the Murray River and South Australia, and the Overland Route. With two maps; and twelve tinted lithographs, illustrative of Australian life, by S.T. Gill. Small octavo, with 12 tinted plates by S.T. Gill, and two folding maps; in original gilt-decorated plum cloth, gift inscription on the front endpaper. London, W.H. Smith and Son, 1859. First edition, first issue of an excellent and objective account of colonial life. The only book S.T. Gill was commissioned to illustrate, this volumes brings together newspaper articles written during extensive travels throughout Australasia in the later 1850s by the radical democratic owner-editor of the Melbourne Argus. An unrelenting critic of lack-lustre colonial administrations, Wilson was several times in court for libel. He was also an astute propagandist whose famous stunt during the unrest on the diggings in 1853 under Hotham's hopeless and hapless rule was to print a standing advertisement: "Wanted a Governor. THE HISTORY OF BALLARAT, from the first pastoral settlement to the present time. Octavo, additional chromolithographed title-page, the folding panorama loosely inserted, plates, early inscription, original cloth (bit worn at head and foot of spine), Edge-Partington copy with bookplate. Ballarat, "Ballarat Star", 1870. First edition. Withers's historical research was well-based on five years' correspondence and interviews with pioneer diggers and squatters, and with eye-witnesses at Eureka. He produced a comprehensive and magisterial work, well-documented, fluently-written, and objective, a major achievement of nineteenth-century Australian historiography and a paradigm of Australian local history writing unsurpassed for decades. Above all, Withers's perceptive and judicial interpretation of the Eureka Rebellion is one of the best accounts, marshalling and objectively evaluating an impressively detailed record of first-hand evidence. Withers's History is also well illustrated with a large folding panoramic view of Ballarat, plates of views and facsimile documents as well as a fine additional title-leaf with a coloured representation of the famous "Southern Cross" Eureka flag of white cross and silver stars on a blue ground. CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS

1. Australian Book Auctions its servants and agents ("the Auctioneer") is agent only for the Seller and is not responsible for any act or omission or default of the Seller or the Buyer.
- 2a. The Auctioneer has the right in his absolute discretion to refuse any person admission to or to eject any person from the place of auction.
- 2b. As a service to bidders Australian Book Auctions will, if so instructed in writing at least 24 hours prior to the sale:
 - (i) make bids on behalf of prospective buyers; or,
 - (ii) make all reasonable efforts to contact prospective buyers by telephone so as to enable them to participate in bidding by telephone on any lot with a lower estimate of at least $1000;but in no circumstance will the Auctioneer be responsible to the Seller or to any prospective buyers for any failure or neglect to do so.
- 3a. Every prospective buyer must complete and sign a registration form and provide all identification that may be required by the Auctioneer before bidding at any auction.
- 3b. The highest bidder shall be the Buyer subject to the Seller's reserve price if any which is confidential between the Seller and the Auctioneer. The Auctioneer may, however, refuse to accept any bid which is not in the best interests of the Seller.
- 3c. In the event of any error or dispute during or after the sale of any lot, the Auctioneer may in his absolute discretion and regardless of the fall of the hammer put up such lot again for sale or withdraw the lot from sale. The decision of the Auctioneer shall be final.
- 3d. The Auctioneer has the right in his absolute discretion:
 - (i) to refuse any bid;
 - (ii) to advance and regulate the bidding as he decides;
 - (iii) to refuse any bid that does not exceed the previous bid by at least ten percent or by such other proportion as the auctioneer may determine;
 - (iv) to divide any lot, combine any two or more lots, or withdraw any lot from sale;
 - (v) bid on behalf of the Seller or of other prospective buyers without disclosure.
- 3e. Any bid acknowledged and relied upon by the Auctioneer may not be withdrawn without the approval of the auctioneer.
- 3f. In the event that any lot fails to reach its reserve price and is bought in on behalf of the Seller, the Auctioneer may in his absolute discretion refer the bid of the highest bidder to the Seller. If the Seller accepts such bid then the lot shall be deemed to have been sold at the auction and the obligations of Seller and Buyer to the Auctioneer in respect of such lot are the same as if it had been sold at auction.
- 3g. Notwithstanding anything else in these Conditions, in the event that any lot is unsold the Auctioneer has the right to sell such lot thereafter by private treaty but otherwise subject to these Conditions and the obligations of Seller and Buyer to the Auctioneer in respect of such lot are the same as if it had been sold at auction.
- 3h. All lots are in all respects at the risk of the Buyer after the fall of the hammer.
- 4a. Subject to the Auctioneer's discretion the fall of the hammer marks his acceptance of the highest bid and the conclusion of a Contract for Sale between the Buyer and the Seller. It shall not be requisite for the Buyer to sign the sale book but the entry of the Buyer's name or number and the amount of his bid in the sale book by the Auctioneer without any further authority or consent from the Buyer than this condition shall be final and binding on all parties and such entry together with these Conditions shall constitute the whole of the contract. A deposit or the whole of the Purchase Price may be demanded by the Auctioneer at the fall of the hammer. The title to a lot shall not pass to the Buyer until the Purchase Price (plus interest and any other charges if applicable) has been paid in full.
- 4b. The Buyer must pay to the Auctioneer in addition to the hammer price on each lot a buyer's premium of 22% (inclusive of GST). The hammer price plus the buyer's premium constitute the Purchase Price of a lot. The Buyer acknowledges that the Auctioneer as agent for the Seller may also receive a commission from the Seller.
- 4c. The successful bidder shall be deemed to be the Buyer and be personally liable unless it has been agreed in writing at the time of registration and prior to the sale that a bidder is acting as agent on behalf of a third party and that such third party is acceptable to the Auctioneer.
- 4d. It shall be the responsibility of the Buyer to obtain any permit required under the Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Act 1986, the Wildlife Protection (Regulation of Exports and Imports) Act 1982 and any other legislation, all as amended, which may restrict or prohibit the export of a lot outside a state or the Commonwealth of Australia. Refusal of any permit shall not vitiate the sale and the Buyer shall be bound to take delivery of the lot without an allowance or abatement in price.
- 5a. At the conclusion of the auction the Buyer will immediately pay to the Auctioneer the whole of the Purchase Price. Payment of the Purchase Price shall be made in Australian dollars in cash. Payment by personal cheque or bank cheque in Australian dollars drawn on an Australian bank may be accepted at the Auctioneer's discretion and, unless prior arrangements have been made, must be cleared before delivery of purchases. Credit card payments by Mastercard or Visa, can also be accepted by prior arrangement. Payments made by credit card are subject to an additional charge of 1.1% to cover bank fees and charges. The Buyer will pay interest at a rate of 3% per month on the Purchase Price in the event of the Purchase Price remaining unpaid for more than 24 hours after the sale.
- 5b. Any payments made to the Auctioneer may be applied by the Auctioneer towards any sums owing from that Buyer to the Auctioneer on any account whatever without regard to any direction of the Buyer or his agent, whether express or implied as to how payment should be applied.
- 5c. Should one Buyer purchase more than one lot at the same auction then each contract shall be interdependent with the others and default under one shall be deemed to be default under all the others, unless the Auctioneer should elect otherwise.
- 5d. All lots purchased must be collected from the place of auction at the Buyer's expense not later than noon on the day following the auction and provided the full Purchase Price has been paid to the Auctioneer.
- 5e. If a Buyer has not collected any or all of his purchases by noon of the day following the auction, the Auctioneer may place the property in storage at the Buyer's risk and the Buyer shall be responsible for all removal, storage and insurance charges on such property. Packing, handling and transportation of all purchased lots is entirely at the risk and expense of the Buyer. In no event will the Auctioneer be liable for loss of or damage to purchased lots irrespective of cause, including negligence, notwithstanding that the property is in the custody and control of the Auctioneer at the time of the occurrence of such loss or damage.

- 5f. In the event of a breach by the Buyer of any of the terms of these Conditions then any deposit or other sums paid to the Auctioneer shall be forfeited and the Auctioneer in his absolute discretion, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to him, will be entitled without notice to the Buyer to dispose of the Buyer's purchases by public auction or private treaty and the Buyer shall pay to the Auctioneer any resulting deficiency in the Purchase Price (plus interest) and any other costs incurred as a result of the Buyer's default, including storage, freight, insurance and any other charges whatsoever. Any surplus shall be paid to the Seller.
- 6a. Any warranties express or implied on the part of the Auctioneer or Seller, other than those that are expressly contained in these Conditions, are hereby excluded. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing any representation in any catalogue, advertisement, condition report, or made orally or in writing elsewhere as to authorship, origin, date, age, size, medium, attribution, genuineness, provenance, condition or estimated selling price is a statement of opinion only. Prospective buyers must satisfy themselves as to all matters relating to the condition, description, authenticity and the nature of any lot by inspection or by obtaining any independent expert advice reasonable in view of the buyers' particular expertise and the value of the lot prior to the date of the auction and the Buyer must take delivery of the lot with all faults patent or latent (if any). Accordingly, buyers will be deemed to have knowledge of all matters which they could reasonably be expected to find out given their particular expertise and the exercise by them of reasonable due diligence.
- 6b. All conditions, notices, descriptions, statements and other matters concerning a lot are subject to any statement modifying or affecting that lot made by the Auctioneer from the rostrum prior to any bid being accepted on that lot.
- 6c. All lots are sold "as is" and no error or misdescription or deficiency in quantity shall vitiate the sale and the Buyer shall be bound to take delivery of the lot without an allowance or abatement in price.
- 6d. Many lots are of an age or nature that precludes their being in perfect condition and reference may be made in some descriptions to damage, restoration, or defect. Such information is given for guidance only and the absence of such reference does not imply that a lot is free from defects nor does the reference to particular defects imply the absence of others. Illustrations of any lot are for the guidance of prospective buyers and are not to be relied upon to determine either tone or colour of any item or to reveal imperfections (if any).
- 6e. Neither the Auctioneer nor the Seller make any representations or warranties, implied or express, as to whether any lot is subject to copyrights nor whether the Buyer acquires any copyrights, including but not limited to reproduction rights in any lot sold.
- 6f. The Seller gives to Australian Book Auctions full and absolute right to photograph and illustrate any lot consigned for sale and to use such photographs and illustrations at any time at its absolute discretion whether or not in connection with the sale. The Buyer and the Seller acknowledges that the copyright of all photographs taken and illustrations of any lot by Australian Book Auctions shall be the absolute property of Australian Book Auctions.
- 7a. Notwithstanding anything else in these Conditions if within fourteen days of the sale notice in writing from the Buyer is given to the Auctioneer that in the Buyer's opinion the lot is a forgery that at the time of the sale had a value materially less than the Purchase Price then the lot may be returned within a reasonably agreed time to the Auctioneer. Should the Auctioneer be satisfied that:
- (i) the lot is returned in the same condition as it was at the date of the sale; and
 - (ii) the Buyer establishes that he has not sold or transferred the lot, and that no rights have been created in favour of any third party in respect of that lot; and
 - (iii) the Buyer establishes that the lot is a forgery, that is to say an imitation originally conceived and executed as a whole with a fraudulent intention to deceive as to authorship, age, origin, period, culture or source and where the correct description as to such matters is not fairly reflected by the catalogue description amended by any statement modifying or affecting that lot made by the Auctioneer from the rostrum prior to any bid being accepted on that lot. No lot shall be capable of being a forgery by reason of any damage, restoration of any kind (including pen facsimile), defects of binding, staining, spotting, foxing, oxidisation, toning, absence of blank leaves or list of plates or list of subscribers or advertisement leaves or cancel leaves or errata slips or errata leaves;
- then the sale will be rescinded and the amount paid by the Buyer will be refunded.
- 7b. The Buyer shall be entitled to claim under this condition only the Purchase Price, being the hammer price plus the buyer's premium, or part thereof actually paid by the Buyer to the Auctioneer for the lot and shall not include a refund of any sales tax, storage charge, insurance, interest, commissions, or any other costs to the Buyer other than the Purchase Price actually paid and specifically the Buyer shall have no claims for any direct or consequential loss suffered or expense incurred by him.
- 7c. This condition does not apply to any multiple lot, box lot, shelf lot, any uncatalogued lot, or any lot described in the catalogue as sold "not subject to return", or "w.a.f." (i.e. with all faults).
- 7d. The benefit of this condition is a non-assignable exclusive right in favour of the actual Buyer of the lot at the auction and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may not be assigned to a third party by a Buyer acting as an agent on behalf of such third party except when in accordance with clause 4c of these Conditions.
- 7e. The Buyer shall not be entitled to claim under this condition if he is in breach of any of the terms of these Conditions.
- 7f. The terms of this condition shall not operate so as to exclude such conditions or warranties as are implied by state of federal law and which cannot legally be excluded or where such exclusion would render any contract with the Buyer, or any part of such a contract, void or voidable.
- 8a. These Conditions of Business shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Victoria, Australia, and all parties concerned hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that state.
- 8b. If any part of these Conditions of Business is found by any court to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that part may be discounted and the rest of the conditions shall continue to be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
